

Passover Wine Tasting featuring Mort and Judy (May 7, 2019)

NJJN NEW JERSEY JEWISH NEWS

PRINCETON | MERCER | BUCKS COUNTIES
A PUBLICATION OF THE JEWISH WEEK MEDIA GROUP
Vol. XXI No. 12 | May 7, 2019 | 2 IYAR 5779
njewishnews.com

18

NJ Jewish News ■ Princeton-Mercer-Bucks Edition ■ May 7, 2019

Gallery

CELEBRATING PURIM — Members of Kehilat Ha Nahar, The Little Shul by the River, celebrated Purim with a Megillah reading, Purimspiel, 70s-themed Havdalah pizza party game night, and children's Purim Carnival.

PASSOVER FUNDAY — Participants in the April Tot Funday program at Adath Israel Congregation, Lawrenceville, made their own seder plates in preparation for Passover.

WINE TASTING — Judy Dogin and Mort Cohen enjoying the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Mercer's pre-Passover wine tasting, with kosher for Passover wines provided by Princeton Corkscrew wine shop.

MOVING UP — Jewish Family & Children's Service Gesher LeKesher Princeton Mercer Bucks, "Bridge to a Connection" Jewish Peer Leadership program, held its annual Moving Up Ceremony at Beth El Synagogue. Eleventh- and 12th-grade peer leaders representing seven high schools and six synagogues were trained in Jewish values, leadership skills, and facilitating peer groups at local synagogues. Gesher LeKesher is partially funded by the Jewish Federation of Princeton Mercer Bucks.