Jewish Community Foundation Announces New Leadership

Princeton, NJ – The mission of the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Mercer is to partner with individuals, families and organizations to help them achieve their philanthropic goals. We are pleased to announce the appointment of new officers and two new members of the Board of Trustees who will help to raise the Foundation’s visibility as a resource on charitable giving and endowment building.

Harvey Fram of Lawrenceville, previously serving as Trustee will become Vice President, Investment, replacing Martin (Marty) Schwartz, who will become Vice President Emeritus, Investment. Harvey is Founder and Portfolio Manager at Constantia Capital LLC. Prior to that, he was an equity Portfolio Manager at New York Life after earning his MBA from the Wharton School. Originally from South Africa, Harvey has served in leadership roles at Adath Israel Congregation.

Michael Feldstein of Princeton, previously serving as Trustee will become Vice President at Large, replacing Marcia (Miki) Krakauer who will become Secretary. Michael is the President of Surface Technology, Inc. based in Ewing. He also serves on the National Executive Council of the American Jewish Committee, The State of New Jersey Israel Commission, the Board of the Jewish Federation Princeton Mercer Bucks, and is a Past President of The Jewish Center of Princeton and a co-founder of the Hindu-Jewish Coalition.

Marcia (Miki) Krakauer of West Windsor, previously serving as Vice President at Large will become Board Secretary, replacing Joshua Waldorf, who will continue as a Trustee. Miki is retired from a senior role with Rail Services at the NJ Department of Transportation and has been a long time leader of the Greater Princeton chapter of Hadassah.

Brenda Zlatin of Princeton, previously serving as Trustee will become Executive Committee Member at Large. Brenda is a Senior Program officer at the Blaustein Philanthropic Group. She is a member of the Leadership Circle of Zamru based in Princeton.
